

TEEN COURT DATABASE

SPONSOR: LAWRENCE COUNTY TEEN COURT
MARLENE TODD

TEAM MEMBERS: ANDREW THOMPSON
BOBBY REILLY

WHAT ARE TEEN COURTS?

- ❖ Provide an alternative disposition for first-time juvenile offenders
- ❖ Committed non-violent minor offense or have been charged with a misdemeanor
- ❖ Individuals must assume guilt
- ❖ Participate in mock trials comprised of peers and volunteers
- ❖ Most programs recognized as valid and legal venues for sentence fulfillment
- ❖ Proven to reduce recidivism rates for juvenile offenders

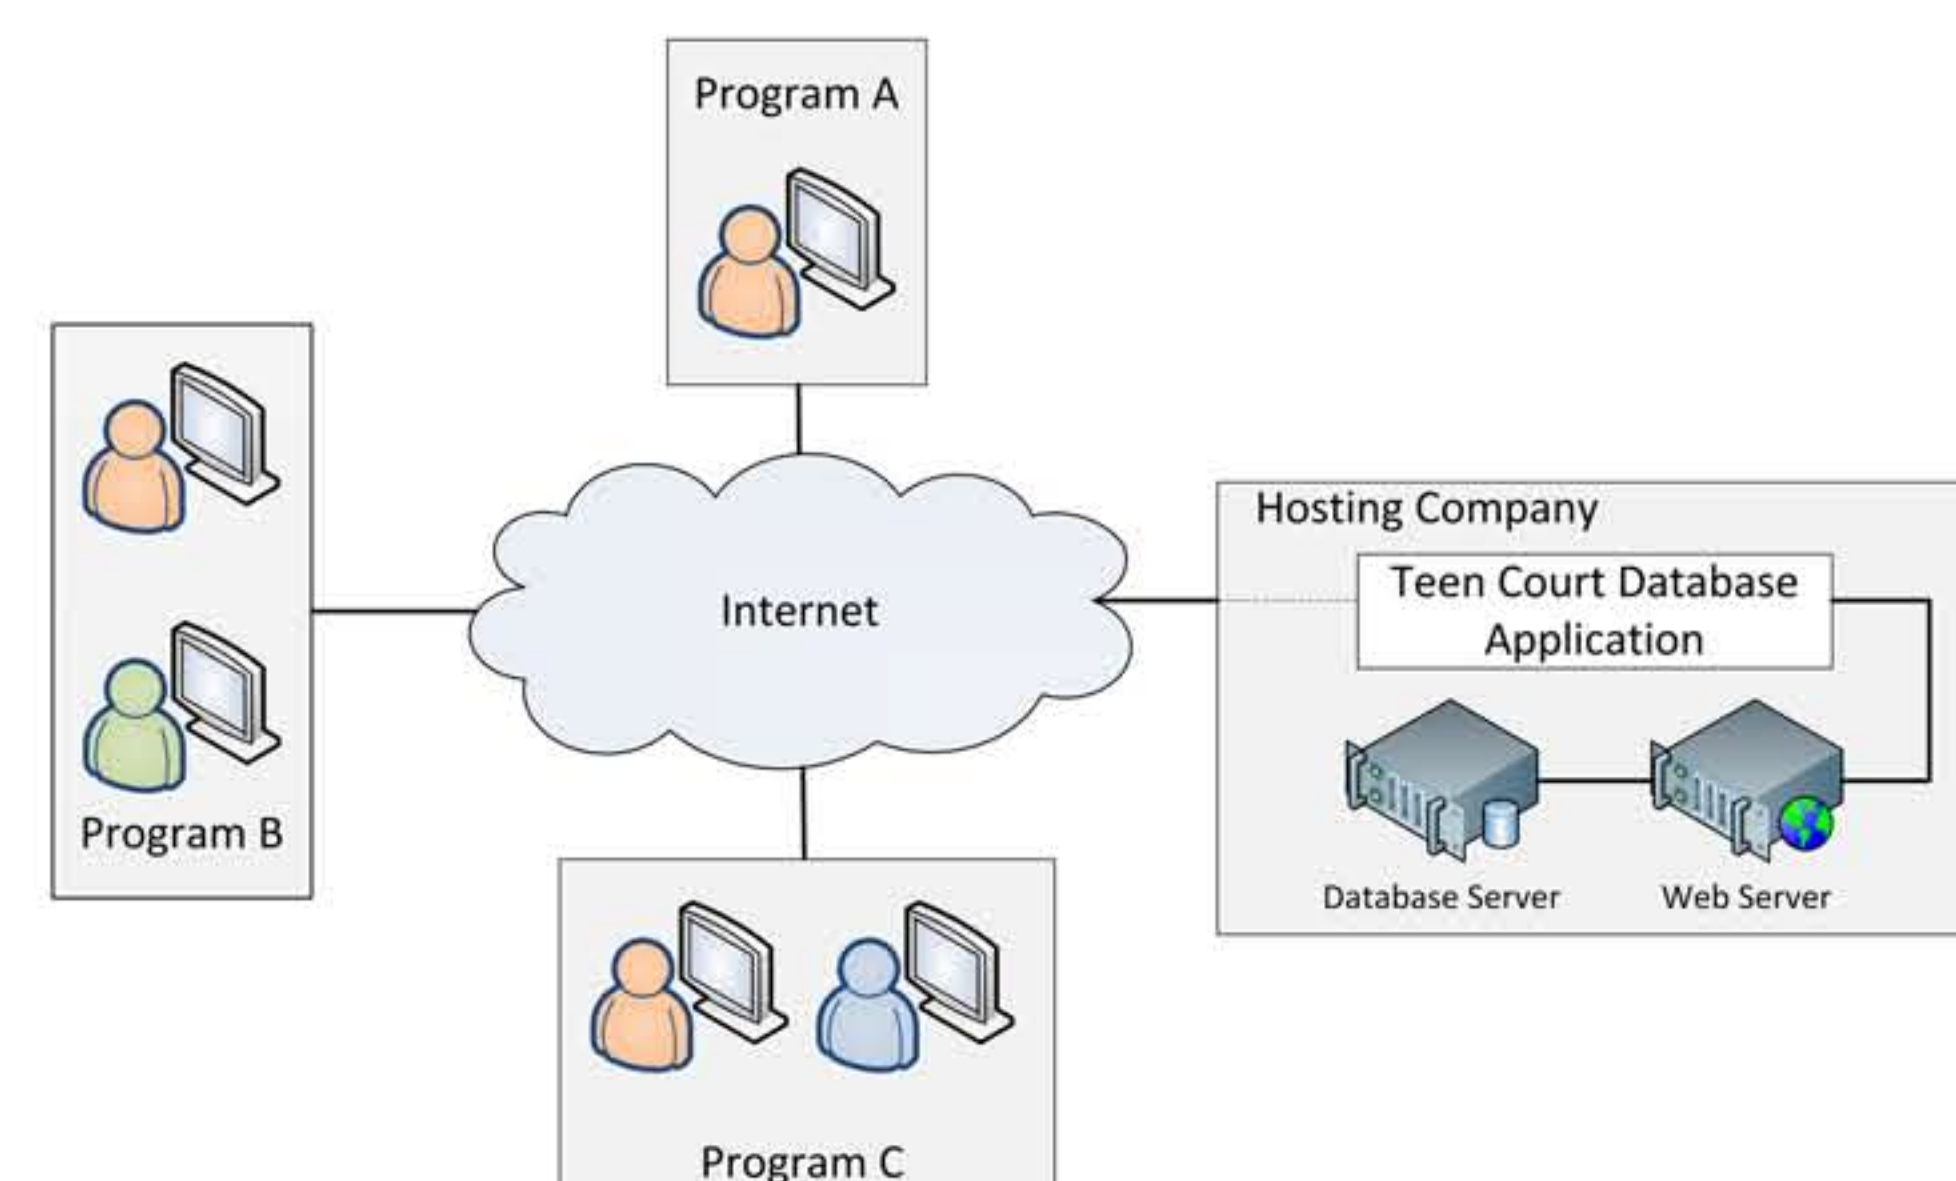

CLIENT REQUIREMENTS

- ❖ Web-based application
- ❖ Multiple teen and youth courts
- ❖ Multiple user accounts
- ❖ Different user access levels
- ❖ Track defendant progress and gather data to eventually generate statistics
- ❖ Different levels of expunging
- ❖ Secure connection and data protected from other users

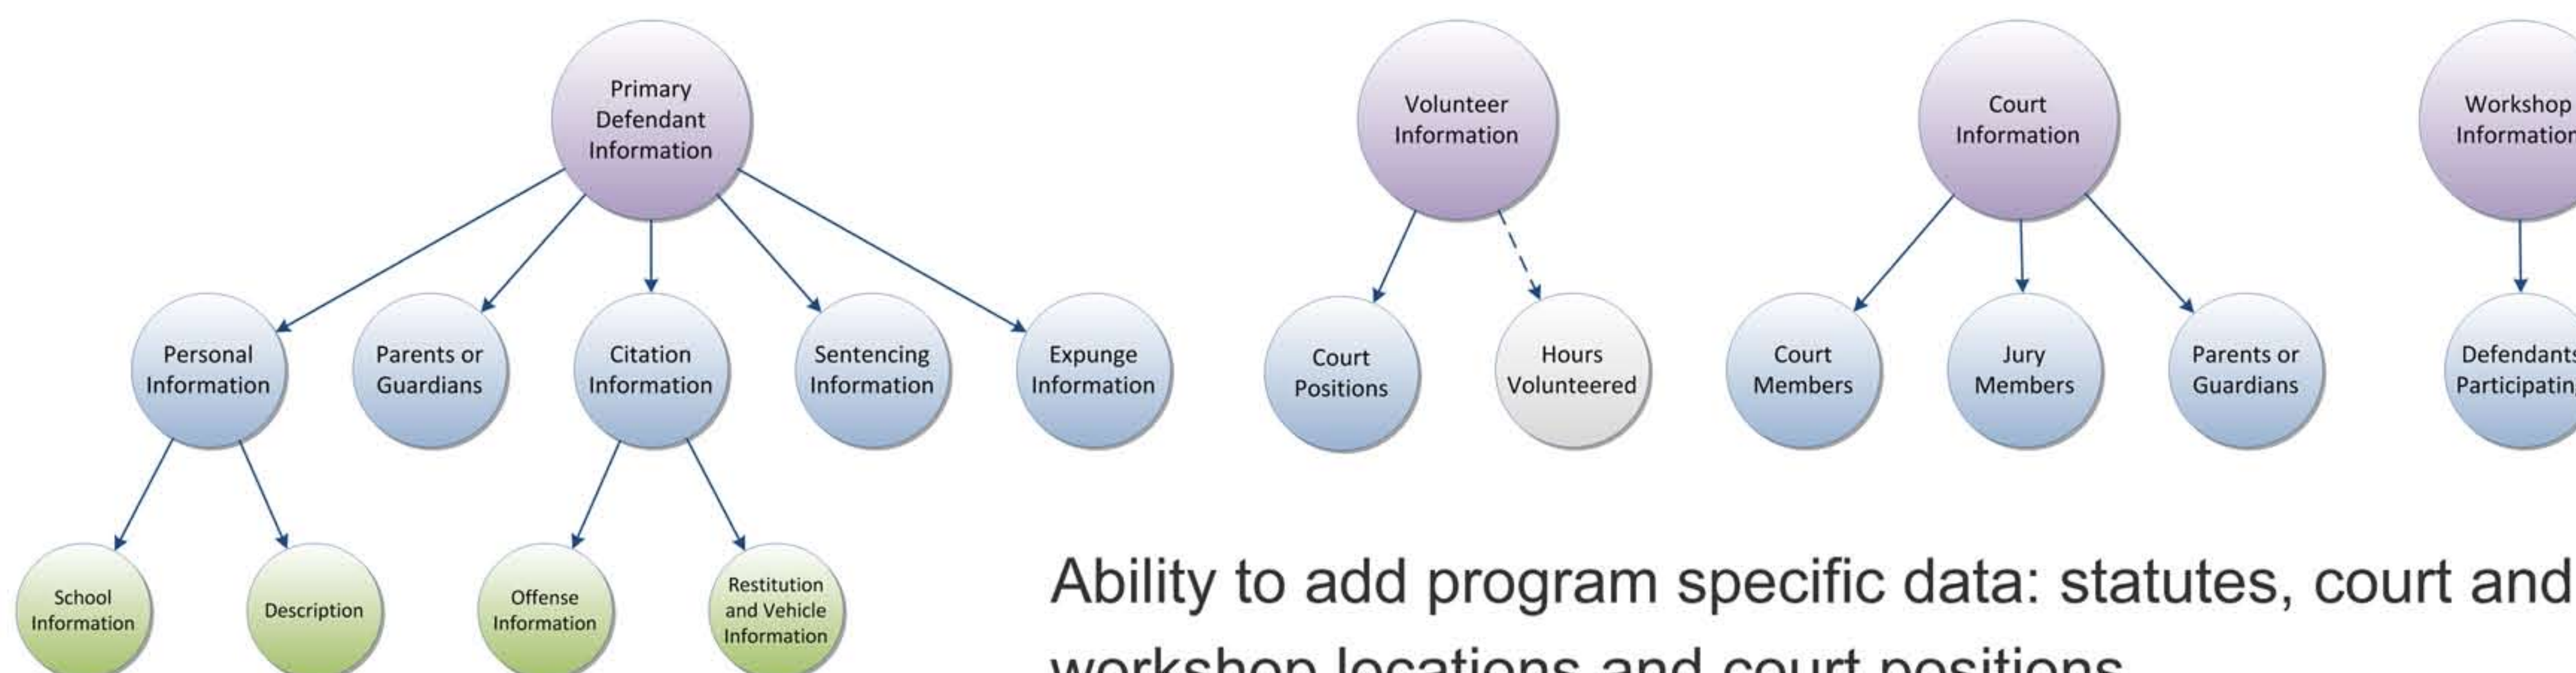

DESIGN & ARCHITECTURE

Architecture

Typical Client-Server Model

Component Details

Ability to add program specific data: statutes, court and workshop locations and court positions.

User Access

Five levels of access.

E-mail address login.

Users can update their own profile.

User action is recorded.

User registration.

User Level	Program				Defendant			Court			Volunteer
	Add Program	Modify Program	Add & Modify Users	Modify Program Details	View Defendant	Add & Modify Defendant	Expunge Defendant	View Volunteer	Add & Modify Volunteer	Enter Volunteer Hours	View Court	Add & Modify Court	Enter Volunteer Hours
Application Administrator
Program/ Application Administrator
Program Administrator
Program Manager
Program User

APPLICATION INTERFACE

TARGET MARKETS

- ❖ Lawrence County Teen Court
- ❖ Other Teen Courts Organizations
- ❖ National Youth Court Center
- ❖ American Probation and Parole Association
- ❖ Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention
- ❖ U.S. Department of Justice